JIFFY LUBE EXPANDS IN GENTILLY SQUARE Statesboro welcomes an upgrade on the largest installed oil changer in North America

Jiffy Lube is known as the largest installed oil changer in North America with millions of satisfied customers. Statesboro's Gentilly Square, one of three Hull Storey properties in Statesboro, will soon host an upgraded version of the national oil changing chain. Gentilly Square is anchored by Winn Dixie and along with the new Jiffy Lube facility will welcome the addition of a Moe's Southwest Grill.

Joel LeMoth, owner and operator of the Gentilly Square Jiffy Lube, has three Jiffy Lube franchises in Hull Storey shopping centers. The other locations include Belair Village Shopping Center in Martinez, Georgia, and Bobby Jones Plaza in Augusta, Georgia. The upgraded Gentilly Square location will offer customers a quick, convenient, and larger location for oil changes.

Jiffy Lube (www.jiffylube.com) began in 1979 as an association of seven service centers. The company now has over 2200 centers in the US and Canada and services more than 29 million cars a year. Jiffy Lube's home office is located in Houston, Texas.
